

2010 Arena Seminar

12th-14th March 2010, Riviera Hotel, Bournemouth

The Arena Seminar is the pre-eminent event where like-minded photographers can learn, discuss and enjoy their art and craft from some of its best practitioners.

Leigh Preston

This very popular event continues in 2010 with another exciting line-up of lectures by superb photographers. Provisionally booked are:

-
- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Ted Humble-Smith | One of the country's leading advertising photographers, creating outstanding images for an impressive range of clients. |
| David Hurn | Magnum member since 1967, David has an international reputation as one of the Britain's leading reportage photographers. |
| John Swannell | For many years one of the best known fashion, editorial and Royal photographers. |
| Nick Turpin | One of the most exciting talents in British photography today, his work pushes the boundaries of modern street photography. |
| Leigh Preston | One of Arena's best known speakers, a great monochrome worker in the fields of landscape and travel photography |
| John Chamberlin | A long established Arena member working in colour wildlife, travel and landscape photography |
-

Early booking is advised to avoid disappointment. For more information, prices and booking details please visit the Arena website:

www.arenaphotographers.com